

NIMSWEEK09

2009/JULY
21-24
Tsukuba International Congress Center
EPOCHAL TSUKUBA

Nanobio-materials and technologies for breakthrough in future medicine

NIMS
AWARD
2009

NIMS Conference 2009 July 21-23

July 21, Tuesday

NIMS Award 2009 Ceremony & Lecture

Keynote Lecture

Prof. Teruo Okano, Tokyo Women's Medical Univ., Japan

Perspective Review Lecture

- Prof. William Bonfield, Univ. of Cambridge, UK
- Prof. Nadrian C. Seeman, New York Univ., US
- Director & Prof. Hajime Ohgushi, AIST, Japan
- President & Prof. Teruo Kishi, NIMS, Japan
- Coordinating Director & Prof. Yasuhiro Horiike, NIMS, Japan

Organized Symposia

July 22, Wednesday

Advanced biomaterials and bio-interfaces

- Director & Prof. Dae Won Moon, Korea Research Institute of Standards and Science, Korea
- Prof. Laura A. Poole-Warren, Univ. of New South Wales, Australia
- Prof. Subhas Chandra Kundu, Indian Institute of Technology Kharagpur, India

Nano-bio materials and devices

- Prof. Peter Fromherz, Max Planck Institute for Biochemistry, Germany
- Prof. Takuzo Aida, The Univ. of Tokyo, Japan
- Prof. Tomokazu Matsue, Tohoku Univ., Japan
- Prof. Yoshinobu Baba, Nagoya Univ., Japan

July 23, Thursday

Recent progress on biomaterials for hard tissue

- Director & Prof. Paul Ducheyne, Univ. of Pennsylvania, US
- Prof. Ke Yang, Chinese Academy of Sciences, China
- Prof. Sadami Tsutsumi, Nihon Univ., Japan

Tissue engineering and related materials science

- Prof. Peter Ma, Univ. of Michigan, US
- Director & Prof. Josep A. Planell, Institute for Bioengineering of Catalonia, Spain
- Prof. Tsuyoshi Takato, The Univ. of Tokyo, Japan

Satellite symposia

July 23

- The 2nd international symposium for nondestructive reliability evaluation (NDRE)

July 24

- Current status and future prospects of hybrid composite materials
- Highly efficient utilization of solar energy featuring advanced photovoltaics
- NIMS Al-Si: steel as a next-generation high strength plate -weldability, toughness and corrosion-
- NIMS symposium on the social acceptance of nanomaterials

Registration fee : Free

Online Registration Deadline : July 7
